uring the first warm days of spring, we see winter has finally released its hold as we notice the first buds on the fruit trees in our orchard. As the sun warms the earth, the blossoms burst forth with the promise of the harvest to come. The orchard gives up its treasures freely season after season, year after year. Cherries for pies, grapes for jam and sweet, crunchy apples are there for the taking.

Alma Allen and Barb Adams of Blackbird Designs would like to share their bounty with you in their new fabric line, Country Orchard. Join them and harvest your favorite prints for quilts and projects for all seasons.
