

Count Your Blessings

Kathy Schmitz

Minimal color keep this line clean and simple - slate black, school house red, and chalk white. Designed to capture the hand drawn look of chalkboards.

Going old school - back to chalkboards and chalk! I have a large chalkboard in my living room which is always an inviting canvas to doodle on when I'm inspired. I wanted to share some of my doodling on fabric too. Drawing with chalk was so refreshing and fun. And doodling....well I could do that all day long!
